As per the provisions and in accordance with Amendment to Rule 11 of the Karnataka Compulsory Selection of Candidates for Admission to Government Seats in Professional Educational Institutions Rules, 2006, vide Government Notification-1, No. HFW 79 RGU 2011, Dated: 17.07.2012, all Candidates who have been allotted seats to pursue MBBS course in Government medical colleges and in Private Medical colleges under government quota shall mandatorily serve one year Compulsory Medical Service in Government Hospital/Institutions in respect to the Act.

1. The candidates who got admitted to MBBS course in Government medical colleges and under government quota in Private Medical colleges during 2006-2015 and completed their internship in 2021 and candidates who have been left out in June-2021 Counselling shall serve the Government.
2. Every candidate (Government Quota irrespective of Universities) who have joined MBBS during 2006-2015 batch, who have completed their internship and have not done one year compulsory service in Karnataka State will have to choose the Government Hospital/Institutions where they would wish to undergo compulsory service, based on vacancies shown through online counselling.
3. Based on their options and according to their merit, candidates will be posted to various Government Hospitals/Institutions where vacancies are available as notified.
4. Non-entry of the options by the candidate will amount to non-compliance of the order and extension of time will not be considered. The candidate will be posted suo-moto as per vacancy available as on date by the competent authority.
5. The candidates will be paid stipend as per department and post chosen by the candidate and according to Government orders issued by respective departments (Department of Medical Education, Department of Health and Family Welfare Services & guidelines of NHM).

6. Following are the steps which will be followed for purpose of posting for one-year compulsory service in Government hospitals /Institution on the basis of merit.

- a) The link for option / priority entry for selecting available vacancy will be shared on the Health and Family Welfare website <https://karunadu.karnataka.gov.in/hfw>.
- b) The online counselling shall be merit based.
- c) The merit list of candidates prepared and sent by RGUHS will published and considered for allotment based on the priority entry submitted by the candidate. Only those candidates published in the merit list who got admitted to MBBS course in Government medical colleges and under government quota in Private Medical colleges during 2006-2015 and completed their internship in 2021 are eligible for counselling.
- d) Process of online options entry and allotment:
  - (i) The candidate may select the department (Medical Education or Health and Family Welfare), District, taluk and then Hospitals (PHC, CHC, Taluk Hospital or /Institute of their choice among the displayed options at the time of entry of options).
  - (ii) The candidate will have the choice to add or remove priority for all the districts to which he is interested in, irrespective of the vacancy in the order of priority.
  - (iii) The order of priority can also be rearranged or deleted until the last date and time. After the last date there is no scope to enter, reorder or delete options.
  - (iv) Therefore, all the candidates are hereby informed to enter their priority of options irrespective of the number of vacancies shown against a particular District/Institute.
  - (v) Candidates are advised to enter any number of options to avoid any disappointment of being posted Suo-moto (from the existing vacancies).
  - (vi) After the compilation of all the priorities and based on the merit list, the candidates order will be notified.
  - (vii) Once the allotment process is complete there is no scope for any change of allotment. An illustration of the same is attached as annexure-I to this notification.

6. While doing the counselling based on the merit, priority shall be given in following cases, namely,-

- a) Candidate or his spouse or children who are suffering from serious and terminal ailments for which medical treatments are not available at his place of posting;
