Karnataka Sports Policy
Stakeholders Consultation Meeting
June 12, 2015 at Alva Education Foundation, Moodabidri, Dakshina Kannada Dist.

The Government of Karnataka constituted Karnataka Jnana Aayoga (Karnataka Knowledge Commission) in 2008 for a period of 3 years. The present KJA has been formally reconstituted on December 28, 2013 and started its full-time functioning from March, 2014 onwards. KJA is headed by Dr. K. Kasturirangan and has 32 experts and department Secretaries as Members. The main aims and objectives of the present KJA are to recommend actions for institution building, policy innovation and excellence in the field of education, health, S&T, industry, entrepreneurship, research and innovation, traditional knowledge, agriculture, E-Governance, rural development and ANY other relevant areas. KJA tasks are "anchored" with one or more departments of GOK – so that after proof-of-concept stage by KJA, any executive implementation can get effectively coordinated by relevant departments of GOK.

KJA has constituted a Task Group on developing Karnataka Sports Policy under the guidance of Mr. Prakash Padukone, Mr. Rahul Dravid, both Members of KJA and Dr. Nagambika Devi, Principal Secretary, Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports, GoK. The objective of the Task Group is to develop a holistic and all-encompassing Sports Policy for Karnataka that not just defines a vision for sports development in Karnataka but also prepares a roadmap for further actions which can set Karnataka apart as a futuristic 'Sports Destination'. To accomplish this, the KJA Task Group has planned for a state-wide consultation and formed a Consultation Group with Ms. Ashwini Nachappa as the lead to plan the stakeholders' consultation meetings. The first stakeholders' meeting is planned for June 12, 2015 at Dr. V.S. Acharya Sabhangana, Alva Education Foundation, Vidyagiri, Moodabidri and is being jointly organised by Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports (DYES), GoK and KJA.

KJA Task Group-Karnataka Sports Policy and Department of Youth Empowerment and Sports is organised the consultation meeting which has graciously being hosted by Alva Education Foundation. The foundation is providing all local supports and helps in organise this consultation meeting. The target groups identified for this consultation meeting are- athletes, coaches/physical education teachers and parents of athletes. The issues proposed to be covered in the stakeholders meeting are-challenges of pursuing sports as a career (athletes), systemic challenges of sports education and training (coaches) and perspective of parents of athletes on sports and system support to endure sports.

We cordially invite you to participate in this meeting and give your valuable suggestions. The draft programme is duly attached.
